The Traveling Soldier Newsletter Needs Some Help Now

[Traveling Soldier Front Page Cartoon]

<http://www.traveling-soldier.org/>

For ten years Traveling Soldier has been a weapon placed in the hands of U.S. troops, calling for their resistance to the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

That weapon needs to be sharpened.

But it takes money to do that.

Consequently, we make our first fund appeal to you for exactly that.

Through the years thousands of copies have been handed out carrying stories by troops more than dissatisfied being used as cannon fodder and, in turn, indicting military higher ups for their abuse and misuse of them.

As example, the current issue contains:

- observations about California National Guard troops and how command must be concerned with those “who think for themselves” and not robotically agree with war efforts that enrich profiteers and no one else;

- the story of how IVAW courageously went to Madison, Wisconsin during worker protests to show their support and loyalty to those being cheated out of their rights by the governor there.

Previous issues depicted:

- Egyptian, Libyan and Tunisian troops denouncing the suppression by their governments and instead swearing never to fire upon the population they represent;
- a special call for reality (to troops) by a USNA graduate, IVAW and Military Resistance member which reminded the military of its oath to the Constitution and not the political elite that has continually put them in harm's way.

This is what Traveling Soldier brings to you AND the troops. You won't find another like it anywhere else.

Military Resistance (formerly The Military Project) is the main distributor of Traveling Soldier and has been reaching out to active duty U.S. military offering alliance in ending the wars.

When we began activities there were two (Iraq and Afghanistan), now there are four more (Libya, Pakistan, Yemen and Somalia); U.S. Imperialism expanding at its peril, the world be damned.

Our outreaches to armories, commuter terminals, airports or wherever troops collect (Fleet Week in New York for example) have not ceased and Traveling Soldier has been an important part of our literature packet.

We also hand out DVDs of "Sir! No Sir!" a memorable history of troop resistance during the Vietnam war whose permission to distribute was granted years ago by producer David Zeiger.

We'd like your active participation in our efforts but if you can't provide your person how about a donation?

It's one thing to protest war(s), another to end them.

Let's do just that by helping the only people who have the critical ability to resist thereby ending the wars just as they did in Vietnam and elsewhere— the troops .

Telling the truth - about the occupations or the criminals running the government in Washington - is the first reason for Traveling Soldier. But we want to do more than tell the truth; we want to report on the resistance to Imperial wars inside the armed forces.

Our goal is for Traveling Soldier to become the thread that ties working-class people inside the armed services together. We want this newsletter to be a weapon to help you organize resistance within the armed forces.

If you like what you've read, we hope that you'll join with us in building a network of active duty organizers. <http://www.traveling-soldier.org/>

The Nixon administration claimed and received great credit for withdrawing the Army from Vietnam, but it was the rebellion of low-ranking GIs that forced the government to abandon a hopeless suicidal policy.
